MOBILIZATION

DIRECTORY OF FORMER EMPLOYEES

1. As a part of the Agency's mobilization program the Office of Personnel plans to keep a current directory of former employees whom the Agency may wish to contact in the event of a national emergency.

2. No plans are made or anticipated for any formal organization for this group. This listing is for the sole purpose of being able to locate, if and when necessary, persons with whom the Agency should keep in touch. The Office of Personnel will contact these persons periodically in order to keep addresses up-to-date.

3. The assistance of operating officials and other senior persons in the Agency is requested in identifying and locating employees who have previously served in CIA in any capacity and who may be considered as potential manpower in a period of mobilization.

4. It is requested that names and current addresses of persons recommended to be included on this list be submitted in a memorandum or by telephone to [redacted] Deputy Director of Personnel for Planning and Development, Room 262 Curie Hall, extension [redacted] prior to 31 March 1958.
